The house on Liliha street is in a thoroughly sanitary condition, is raised off the ground, and is in a clean locality. The girl had been nowhere where there was any likelihood of her taking the disease, and the only reasonable explanation that I can see is that T. F. Hope carried home the infection in his clothes or on his shoes. Hope, who was guarding Russian Frank's premises up to March 25, went around through the quarantined block during the night time looking after the guards.
